Notice

This is to inform all final year M.Tech students (Batch 2021) that the draft version of your M.Tech thesis must be submitted on 18th July, 2024 to the concerned supervisor. This draft is crucial for preliminary evaluation and feedback from the supervisor. Please ensure that before submitting the draft version, you show it to your co-supervisors for necessary changes (if any) which will help you refine and improve your thesis before final submission. The final version of your thesis, incorporating any revisions suggested during the draft review, must be submitted on 24th July, 2024 in the office of the coordinator. Please ensure that you adhere to the following guidelines to avoid any delays in thesis evaluation process.

Guidelines for Thesis Submission:

1. Format and Structure:

The thesis must be formatted according to the guidelines specified by the institute and the thesis template already shared.

2. Content:

Ensure that your thesis presents a clear understanding of the research work carried on which is fully supported by appropriate data, graphs and results.

3. Plagiarism Check:

The thesis will undergo a plagiarism check. So ensure that all sources are properly cited and referenced using an appropriate citation style (e.g., IEEE).

4. Submission Procedure:

- Draft version: Submit one hard copy (spiral bound) and one soft copy (PDF format) of your thesis to the concerned supervisor.
- Final version: Submit three hard copies (spiral bound) and one soft copy (PDF format) of your thesis to the concerned supervisor.
